

Toronto CADORA presents a weekend with internationally-acclaimed horse trainer, author and clinician

Chris Irwin

Open to everyone one who wants a better understanding of the horse, no matter what the discipline.

“The Evolution of the Dressage Horse: The Transformational Journey from War Horse to Dance Partner”

Date: Friday, April, 3, 2009 Time: 6:30 p.m. at Pine Ridge, 14290 Weston Road,
King City (north of King Side Road)

TC members: $25; Non-members: $35;
JR/YR members (21 years and under): $15; JR/YR non-members $20

WIN a chance to work with Chris! Do you have a horse who won't "give" to the aids? Is your horse using his competitive breeding to challenge you? Is your horse aggressive about staying behind the leg and refusing to "respect" the inside leg or go forward? Win a chance to participate with your horse at this event! Simply send an email marked "Dance Partner," with your name and full contact information, your horse's name and background information, as well as your rider level, to pamhope@rogers.com by March 21 at 6 p.m. Two lucky winners will be drawn from the entries on March 22. For further information, contact Pam at 905.642.2865
